VIOLA R. ALLEN

Educator - Counselor - Friend

For nearly a half century, Viola R. Allen gave of herself to the community through the medium of the educational profession. Students who worked with her or knew her were enriched through her counseling and by her friendship. Good nature begets smiles, smiles beget friends, and friends are better than a fortune. Miss Allen endowed these friends with a fortune of character exemplified in the highest qualities of the human mind and heart.

Her interest in and understanding of her students encouraged them to do their best. Her tolerance of their mistakes gave them a desire to work for achievement with accuracy. Her kindness and fairness were the incentives for greater accomplishment. Her appreciation of efficiency in business and for the noblest of human relations were standards for her students to emulate.

Thus, this teacher has left to Enfield High School a heritage of faithful loyal service—a lifetime of devotion to the inculcation of the highest ideals of character and business acumen upon the mind and soul of its students.

"Something there is in lives like hers
Gracious and golden-kind,
That brings the sky to every home,
The stars to every mind."

MISS ISABELLE M. LANDRY

DEDICATION

Dear Miss Landry,

Throughout your years of teaching you have devoted your time to preparing students for successful careers in the business world. Your effort and sincerity have given us a sense of responsibility and confidence. We would like to express our warmest gratitude for your concern in our welfare. You have taught us to realize each individual has a particular obligation to himself as well as to others. If ever anyone needed help, your assistance was always at hand.

We cannot find the words to express our appreciation for the devotion you have displayed in your work. We all thank you for the knowledge and understanding you have given us.

Sincerely yours,
THE CLASS OF 1965

PREFACE

A key unlocked a high school door and a crowd stumbled into the halls, on legs too long, with voices high and squeaky, and eyes expectant and uncertain.

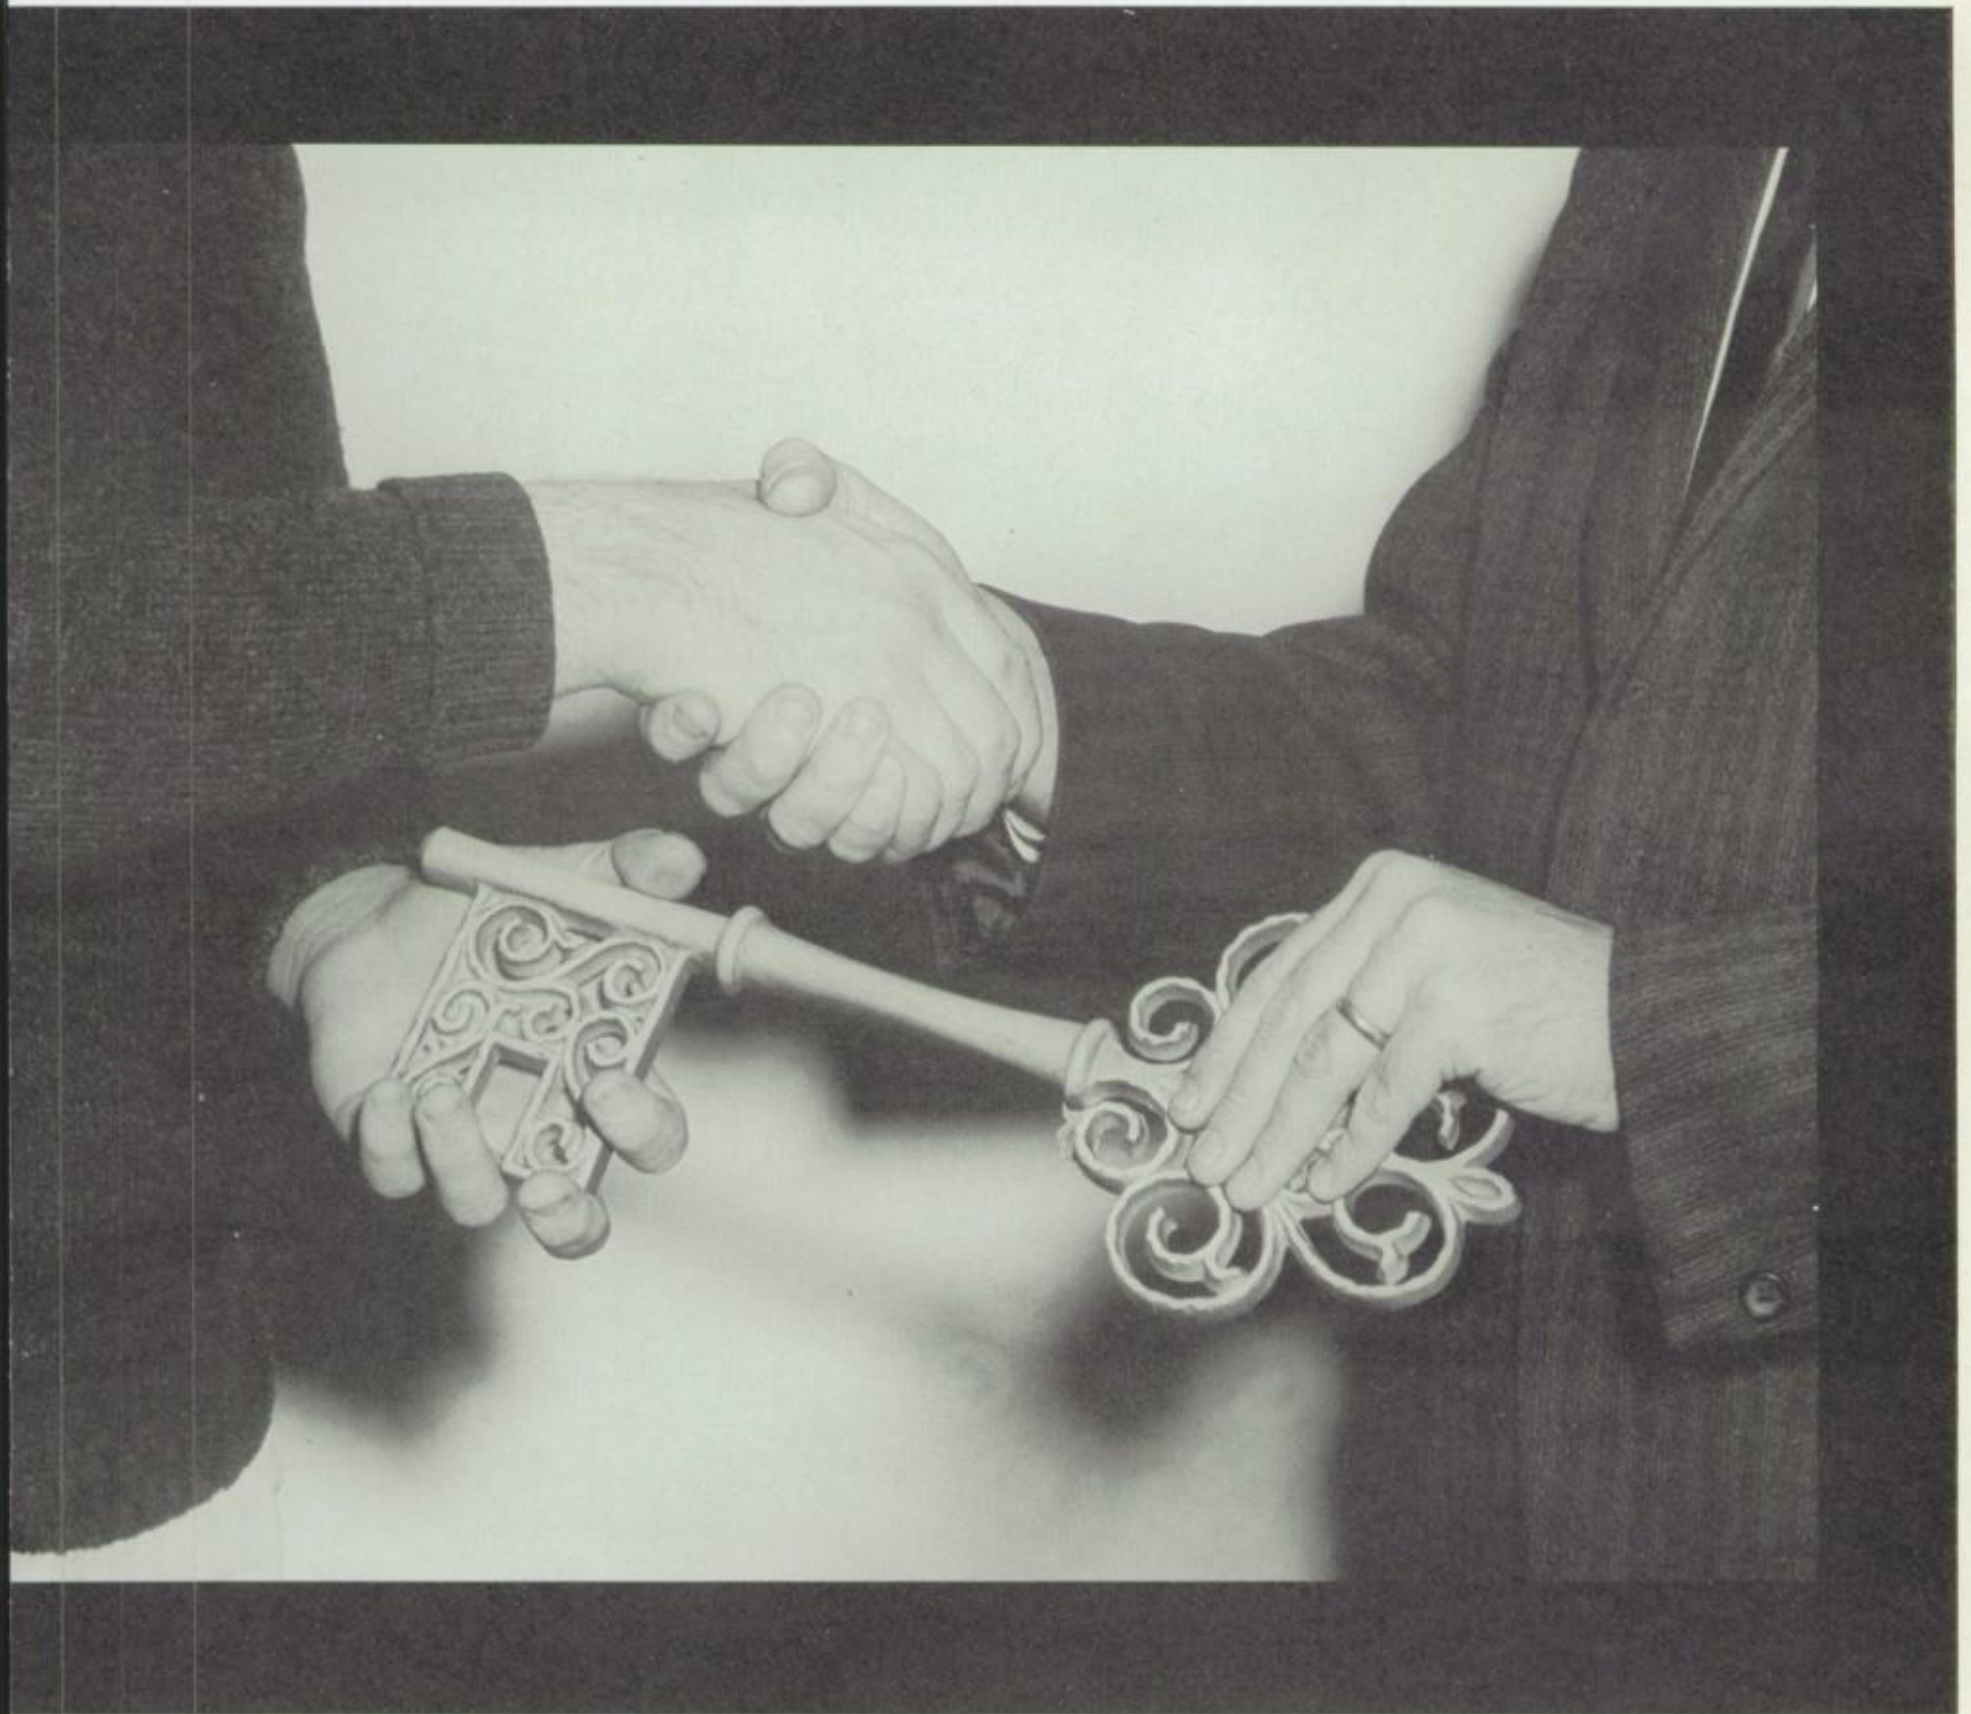

Four years later, a key locked a high school door and all was quiet. The eyes are still expectant though self-confident, and the voices have dropped an octave.

Now, once again, we unlock the door to those quiet halls, and walk slowly, listening for the echoes of those four years.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Keys not only unlock; they also lock. As graduation unlocks the door to adult reality, so does it lock the door to a carefree child's world.

Gone now are those four years. Gone are the Saturday football games, the cheers, the yells, the rallies, the sundaes at Friendly's. In the past are the basketball games, the school play, the senior prom, basement passes, driver education and lunch waves.

No more rushing from club to club, decorating for a dance, collecting class dues, worrying over college boards, sweating out college acceptances, fighting with French verbs, solving problems in physics and trigonometry, catching up with typing jobs, puzzling out chemical equations, and generally raising the roof.

We say good-bye to teachers, coaches, counselors, advisors, friends; to our nearly new building; to four years of fun, learning, antics, tears, and growing up. We say good-bye and the door is locked. And before us is unlocked the door to the future.

CLASS HISTORY

Now is the time to look back on our high school years and recall in a short history just what these past four years have meant to us, as individuals and as a class.

As we entered high school in 1961, we received the key which opened the first door. We found the beginning of something each person looks upon only once; four years of learning, heartaches, headaches, and activity. But this was only the beginning, and we never once realized in that first year that some day we would leave high school, having opened many such doors.

Because our freshman class was separated, we had no class officers. However, Student Council representatives, Sally Lee; Jeris Provencher; Richard Coté; and Joseph Fede fulfilled the difficult task of representing our class.

This handicap did not prevent Pete Cappozzi, Ray Dubois, Bernard Duffy, Rich Ferry, Sam Fiore, Paul Javorski, Ron Ruggerio, and Thomas Quinlan from participating in J. V. football.

Winter set in and Ed Dymek, Paul Javorski, Steve La Franchise, Ron Miller, Tom Quinlan, and Doug Wien joined forces to form the J. V. basketball team, cheered on to victory by Candy Lougee, Judy Chillson, Jeris Provencher, Diane Frangiamore, and Nancy Ravenola.

Thespians Louise Hinkle, Jeris Provencher, and George Evans began their theatrical careers representing the freshman class in the Drama Guild's production of The Andersonville Trial.

On the baseball diamond Paul Javorski, Pete Cappozzi, Joe Garbrous, Steve La Franchise, Joe Morris, Tom Quinlan, and John Pohorylo showed potential for future years.

Academic honors were brought to our class by George Evans, who attained the prize for English composition, and by Michael Grabon, who received the Algebra I award.

As sophomores we received the key which unlocked the second year of high school. While classwork broadened our knowledge, extra curricular activities enabled us to get together for work and fun.

Our Student Council representatives Patti Munsell, Jane Kozlowski, Jeris Provencher, Bonnie Hartford, Ed Wojnar, and Rich Coté held the reins until the class officers, President, Dave Jamieson; Vice-President, Nancy Ravenola; Secretary, Jan Jacius; and Treasurer, Mike Arietti were elected.

Basketball season found Tom Quinlan, Paul Javorski, Dave Jamieson, Doug Wien, Ed Dymek, Rich Coté, Rusty Bedner, Jim Richer, Ken Gwozdz, Steve La Franchise, and Mike Misiewicz eager to play, while Ron Miller took his place on the varsity squad. The voices cheering the boys on belonged to Candy Lougee, Jeris Provencher, Sig Magnuson, and Bev Baker.

During this year, the girls formed a basketball team that met in competition with area schools. Sophomore members included Diane Nisotis, Sally Lee, Jan Phillips, Doreen Christmas, Barb Masterson, Myrna Maldonado, Sandy James, Pat Segler, Linda Rogers, Joyce La Voi, and manager Patti Munsell.

Pat Maynard, Fran Leno, Dave Cimino, Ed Galinski, and Donna Smith added their talents to the cast of The Hasty Heart.

Baseball enthusiasts included Ron Bonzagni, Ray Dubois, Jim Drabkin, Ken Gwozdz, Steve La Franchise, Mike Misiewicz, Paul Panek, John Pohorylo, Bill Watrous; and Joe Garbrous, Joe Morris, and Tom Quinlan joined the ranks of the varsity.

In the field of academics, George Evans proved once again that work can bring reward when he won the Latin I award.

Upon entering our junior year, we received the key which opened the third door.

Football season arrived again, and donning uniforms were Paul Javorski, Ernie Jensen, Ron Miller, Tom Quinlan, Warner Robinson, Greg Smyth, Doug Wien, Rich Coté, Pete Cappozzi, John Folan, and Sam Fiore. Cheerleaders were Candy Lougee, Jan Jacius, Nancy Ravenola, Judy Chillson, Diane Frangiamore, and Cheryl Fredericks. With Dori Sullivan as captain, Bev Baker and Patti Munsell cheered for J. V. Twirling to the band's marches were Diane Grenier, Jane Kozlowski, Chris Brown, Dea Gadowski, and Myrna Maldonado.

Jane Kozlowski, Patti Munsell, Kathy Berg, Sig Magnuson, Bernice Kotfila, and Ed Wojnar were the Student Council representatives. We chose Dave Cimino President of our class; Jeris Provencher, Vice-President; Jan Jacius, Secretary; and Sheila Noga, Treasurer.

Basketball season saw Ron Miller, Paul Javorski, Tom Quinlan, Dave Jamieson, Doug Wien, Ron Kalva, and Ken Gwozdz fighting for Enfield High.

Added to our long list of successes was the junior prom, entitled "Over the Rainbow". With Tom Quinlan and Sig Magnuson as host and hostess, we enjoyed one enchanted evening—"Over the Rainbow."

Joe Garbrous, Ken Gwozdz, Paul Javorski, Steve La Franchise, Joe Morris, Mike Misiewicz, Tom Quinlan, and Doug Wien again played baseball for EHS.

Patty Maynard, as Lotus Blossom, took part in another hit presentation by the Drama Guild in Teahouse of the August Moon.

To Girls' State, Enfield sent Nancy Ravenola, while Dave Cimino, John Ciak, Rich Rarus, and Mike Arietti represented Enfield at Boys' State.

Many deserving students were presented awards this year. Chris Zywiak, Judy Daziens, Ted Leaf, and Mike Grabon received honorable mentions in the National Merit Exams. Mike Arietti received the American History Award, George Evans the Latin II Award, Diane Sideravage the Bookkeeping and Typing Awards, Diane Cote the Stenography I Award, Betty Luwé Solesky the Leadership Medalion, and Ted Leaf the Yale Book Award.

Seniors at last! Finally we reached the final position, and were ready and able to accept the responsibilities it entailed.

Leading the class were our officers, President Tom Quinlan, Vice-President Jeris Provencher, Secretary Jan Jacius, and Treasurer JoEllen Kassebaum; assisted by Student Council representatives Jane Kozlowski, Kathy Berg, Cathie Rich, Kris Bachhaus, Mike Arietti, and Rich Coté.

Football season again found Paul Javorski (later chosen as a member of the Suburban League All-Stars), Ernie Jensen, Tom Quinlan, Warner Robinson, Greg Smyth, Doug Wien, Pete Cappozzi, John Folan, and Sam Fiore on the gridiron. Doing their best to cheer the boys on to victory were Candy Lougee, captain; Nancy Ravenola, co-captain; Jan Jacius, Dori Sullivan, Judy Chillson, Diane Frangiamore, and Diane Nisotis.

Again playing soccer were Phil Clarkin, Ed Galinski, Mike Grabon, Ken Gwozdz, Carl Holmgren, Dave Jamieson, Steve Myre, Joe Morris, Sal Mulé, Borden Mahoney, Paul Panek, Andy Prayzner, Mike Reveruzzi, and Jack Willard.

Seniors performing in Inherit the Wind were Donna Smith, Pat Maynard, Ed Galinski, Hal Carpenter, Mike Grabon, Chris Zywiak, Marcia Spencer, and Fran Leno.

Basketball season found Paul Javorski, Dave Jamieson, Ron Kalva, Doug Wien, Ron Miller, Ken Gwozdz, and Chuck Gatto on the court.

With the keys of understanding and knowledge from our four years of high school, we look to the future with anticipation and to the past with many fond memories. With a feeling of accomplishment, we bid farewell to high school.

STUDENT COUNCIL

In keeping with the goals of its formation, the Student Council has sought to transfer the student body's wishes into deeds. As representatives of their respective classes, the Council members form a body capable of having an effective voice in the school.

The Council, in addition, provides a scholarship to a deserving Senior and is planning an International Exchange Student Day, including panel discussions by visiting Foreign Exchange students.

FUTURE TEACHERS' CLUB

Senior members of the Future Teachers' Club, in addition to their regular club activities, took part in a teacher-aid program, where they cooperated with a faculty advisor in teaching a class during their free period.

Among regular activities were guest speakers from colleges, schools, and our guidance department; plus the "Mittens for Mansfield" drive, and visits to the Enfield Street School and the Willimantic State Teachers' College.

STUDENT TICKER

The main purpose of the Student Ticker is to inform the student body and their parents of school news and activities. By informing students and parents, the Ticker establishes a closer relationship between the school and community in general. It can also be an important factor in fostering and instilling school spirit and interest.

The Ticker offers every student an opportunity to express himself by encouraging thoughtful advice and honest, constructive criticisms through his letters to the editor.

The Ticker staff benefits by the responsibility and achievement they gain. The experience in creative writing later enables the student to pursue a business or journalism career.

SKI CLUB

The Ski Club this year has sought to further interest and participation in skiing throughout the school. To achieve this, it has organized ski trips for its members to neighboring slopes during the ski season. Its advisor, Mr. Frank Gawle, has instructed the members in the procedure and style of correct skiing.

Newly elected officers are William Nareski, president; Alan Manton, vice-president; Janice Nareski, secretary.

LIBRARY AIDES

The Library Aides program offers members of the student body an opportunity to work in the library during their study halls. Students participating in this program cultivate an interest in a beneficial direction. They not only gain experience in library techniques but also provide an efficient service to the entire student body. Their assistance familiarizes students with the use of all forms of library materials.

The Washington Trip: February 22 - 26, 1965

"Eating our way to Washington"

"So where are we going tonight?"

"Visiting the Lincoln Memorial"

"I wonder if they're home?"

"Marching on the Capitol!"

We shall never forget our disappointment as the snow fell on the morning we were to leave. We were all packed and raring to go. If this snow meant a cancellation, we'd die. As if just for us, the snow soon stopped.

The bus trip was unbelievable. It seems we sang, laughed, and ate our way to Washington. No sooner had we passed through Hartford than we saw the skyline of New York. All the time, closer and closer.

Our arrival at the Hotel Commodore was quite funny. Everywhere were suitcases and people looking for them. The rooms were comfortable, but there was one problem: some of us switched so often that first day, that for the rest of the week, we were confused as to which room was really ours.

We went on a tour that very night and the Lincoln Memorial was our first stop. The Jefferson Memorial concluded our tour.

From then on, our schedules consisted of breakfast, tours until noon, lunch, and more tours until dinner. After dinner, we were free to do almost anything, as long as we returned to our rooms by twelve.

One can read about many beautiful monuments in Washington, but a look at the real thing makes one aware of his American heritage—and very proud of it.

Before we knew it, it was good-bye Washington. "Hello" New York. This ride was exciting to the point of near disaster, when one of our buses almost dove off the Chesapeake Bay Bridge (slight exaggeration!).

We were on our way to Enfield now; back on the bus which, for a week, had been our "home". We were exhausted, yet we had to make these few hours last. Everyone was laughing and singing again, when all of a sudden, we were home.

A state of depression gripped all three buses as they pulled into the parking lot. We knew the trip was over, but we couldn't believe it. It was good to be home, but, oh, to be back in Washington!

"Washington slept here."

"The Eternal Flame"

"The Unknown Heroes"

"Are you sure the party's here?"

"Oh boy . . . another tour."

"The Franciscan Monastery"

"And if I'm elected . . ."

FOOTBALL

The Enfield High Raiders compiled a three win, one loss, and two tie record this year. The season opened with a thriller against Ludlow High where the two teams battled continuously with neither side's defense giving in. The struggle ended in a 0 to 0 tie.

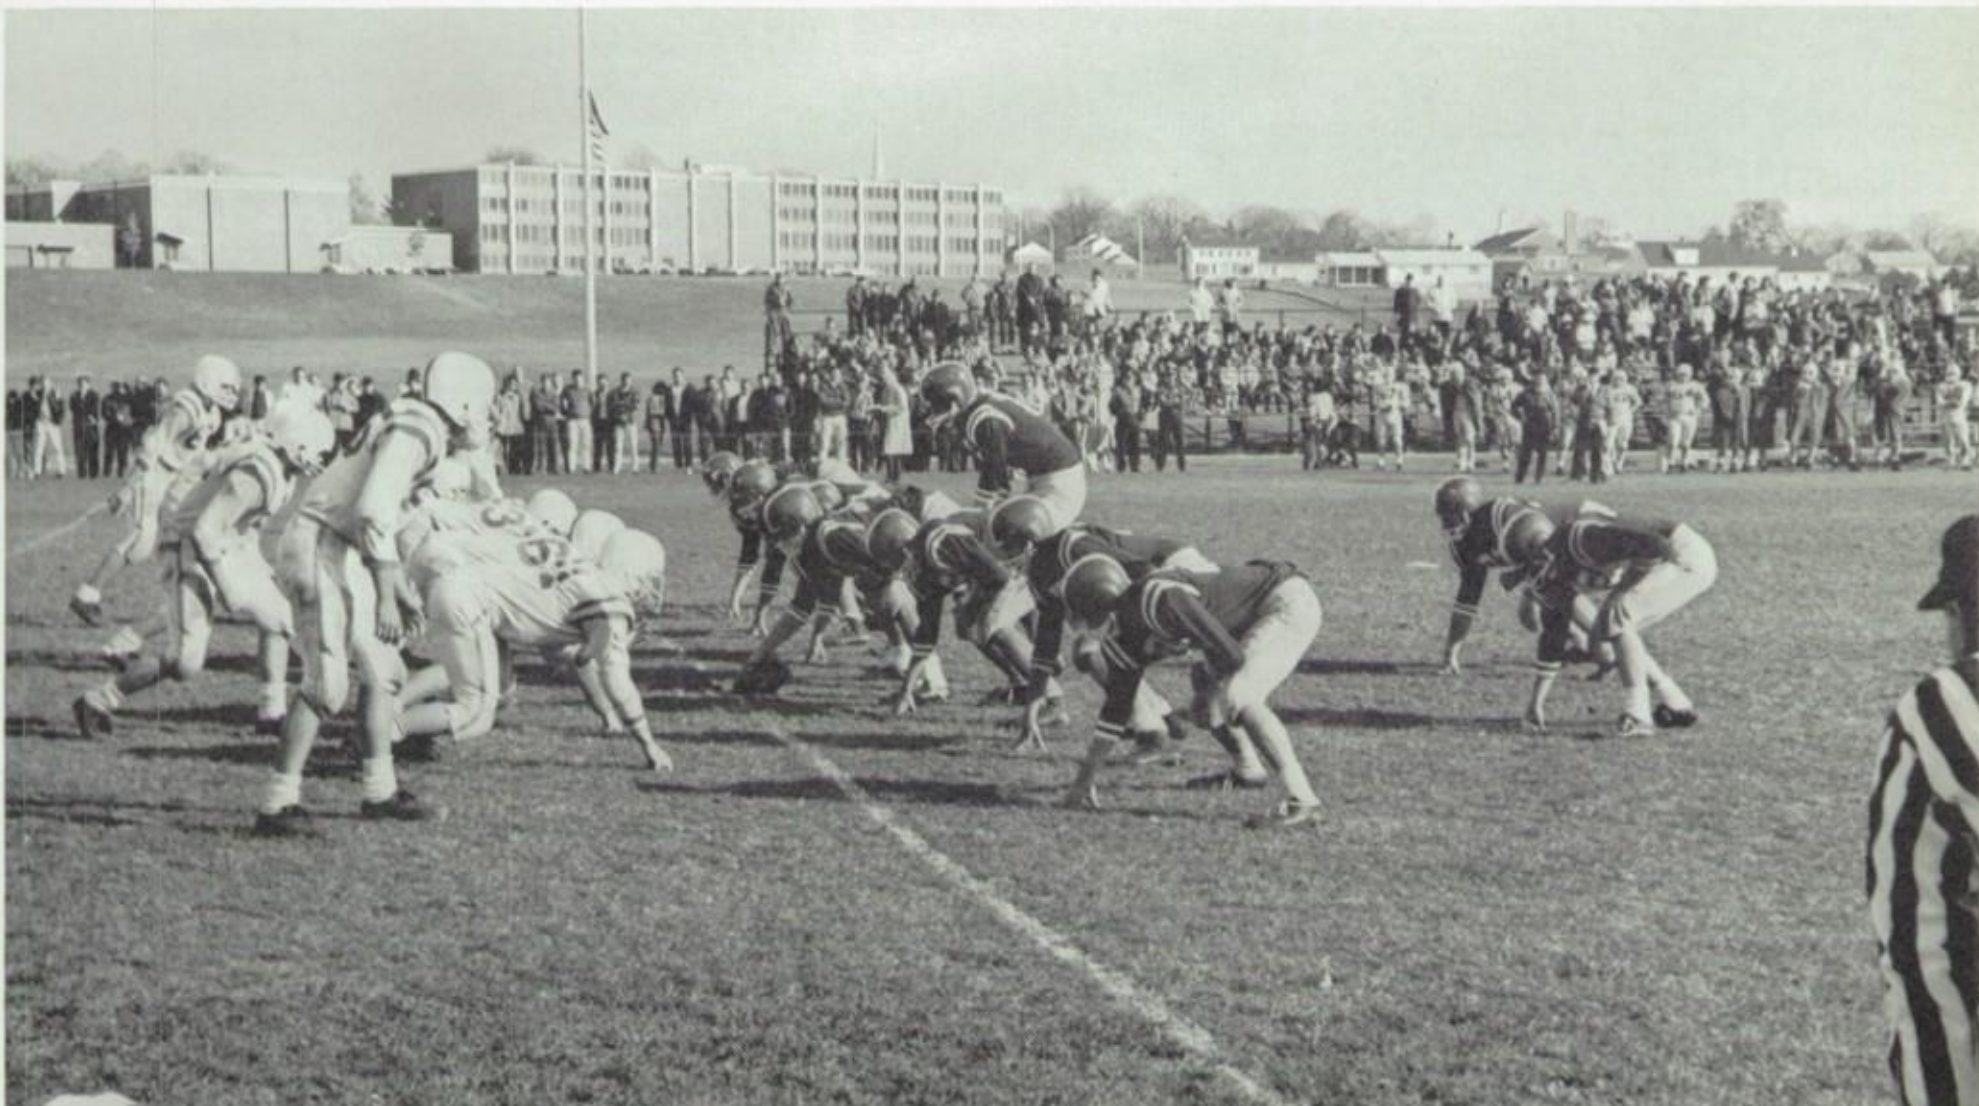

Next came an independent games with Holyoke Catholic where the Green Raiders were determined to make big as they rolled to an easy 21 to 6 victory.

The Raiders, with some experience under their pads, then battled East Longmeadow on our home field. The East Longmeadow team proved to be an easy conquest for the Raiders as the final score was Enfield 28, East Longmeadow 0.

At mid-season the Raiders met a tieless, undefeated, first place Palmer team. Our team, aware of the importance of this game, took a 12 to 0 half time lead and felt confident for a nice victory. This proved to be a fallacy, however, for Palmer made a tremendous comeback and ended the game with a 12 to 12 deadlock.

The Green Wave, discouraged by a tie with Palmer, next took on South Hadley, the defending champs. South Hadley, although rebuilding their team, had a quick hitting offense which proved to be just a little bit too much for the discouraged Raiders as they lost their only game of the season, 6 to 8.

Next, Enfield traveled to Minnechaug, a team who surprised many schools by having a fairly good season in the Suburban league after having been cellar dwellers since it joined. The Raiders, knowing that this remaining game was necessary for a successful season, took home a 19 to 6 victory.

"Team Down!"

The highlight of the season was now upon us. Of course, it was the game against Longmeadow High. The Raiders, traveling to Longmeadow in high spirit for the most important game of the season, were determined to score another victory. The game was evenly matched as the two teams ended the first period with a 0 to 0 tie. As the second period closed, the game remained in a deadlock tie of 0 to 0. After a serious halftime, the Raiders came back but continuously failed to drive the ball across the line. The final period began, and the Longmeadow Lancers scored a 6 point touchdown which seemed to indicate the end of the game. However, this was not in Enfield's mind, as the Raiders quickly took control of the ball while good signal calling proved successful as a Tyler to Ragno pass tied the score 6 to 6. Longmeadow, forced to give up the ball, quickly found themselves in a perilous position. Then an Angelica to Tyler pass, with less than two minutes left, proved to be the victory punch for the Raiders as Longmeadow went down in defeat 12 to 6.

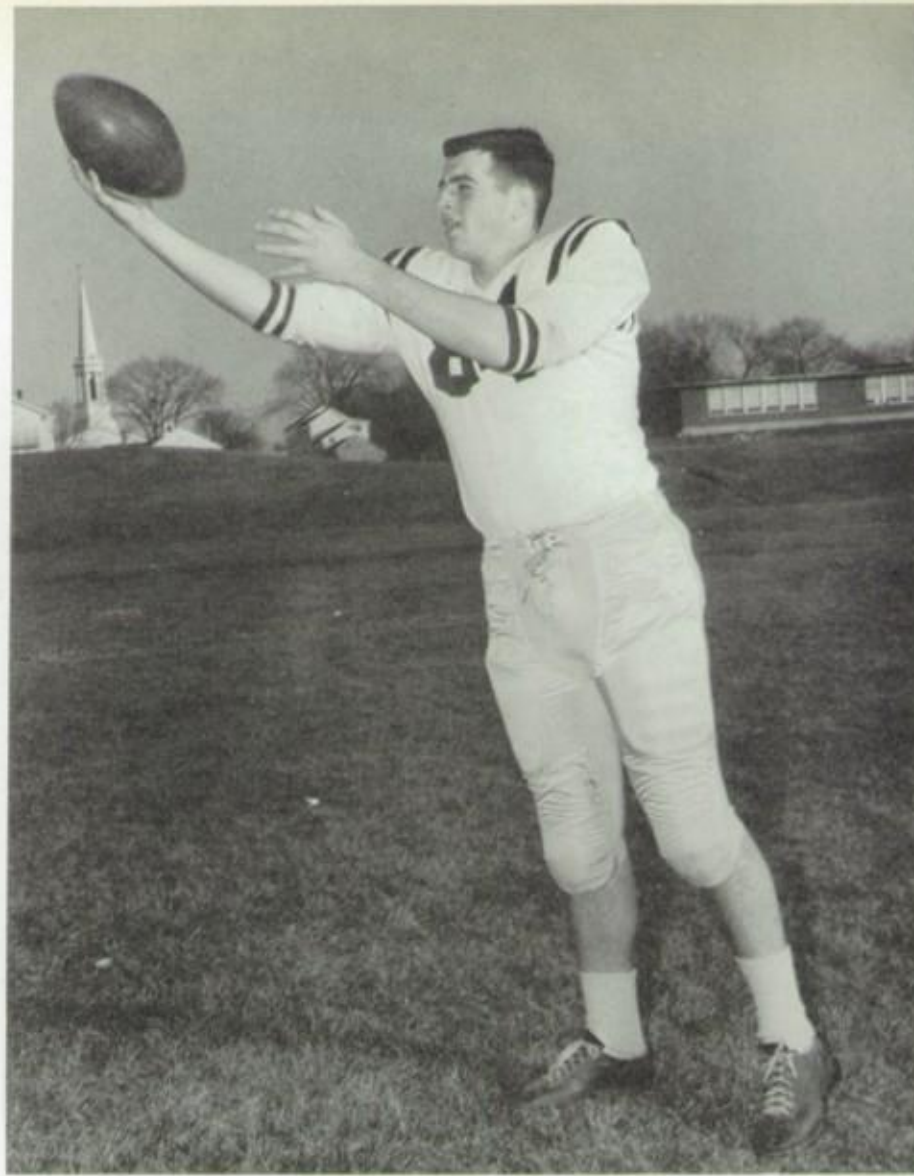

Captain of this year's team was senior, Paul Javorski who, along with junior Charles Ragno, was voted to the All Suburban League team.

SOCCKER TEAM

The Enfield High Soccer Team started the season confidently. We played our first game with Ludlow High, the Mass. champs, but went down 11-1. A week later we faced Windsor Locks, the Conn. champs. With a little more confidence and much spirit we went down 3-0. Over the weeks the skill of the team increased. The proof came when we defeated Windsor Locks in our second meeting, 3-2. This was due to the hard and determined coaching of Mr. Easton and Mr. Fogarty.

Our defensive line consisted of five players. Starting at center was Sal Mulé, whose eye stopping dribbling left opponents in his wake. He was flanked on the right and left by Ken Breedon, a sophomore who scored 11 of our 15 goals, and Paul Panek, whose speed set up many shots for Ken. Andy Prayzner started at left wing with Mike Foley at right wing. The forward line was always subject to change, but those who played were Carl Holmgren, Borden Mahoney, and co-captain Phil Clarkin.

The defense was headed by Joe Morris, who became the backbone of the team with his never-say-die drive and his quickly acquired skill. When Joe was hurt, Ed Galinski took his place and did a good job. He was flanked on the left either by Mike Reveruzzi or Tom Besse, and on the right by Mike Grabon. Our fullbacks were David Jamieson and co-captain Jack Willard, who worked very well together. Ken Gwozdz did a great job as goalie.

TRACK TEAM

The Enfield High Track Team has completed its second full year of competition since its re-entry into the Valley Wheel. Enfield ended with an impressive 3-3 record, beating Suffield High by a very large margin of 77-12. Enfield was also victorious over Holyoke Catholic and Palmer, but lost to East Longmeadow, Longmeadow, and Minnechaug.

E.H.S. took part in a triangular track meet held at East Longmeadow at the end of the season. Although we lost, many outstanding performances were turned in. Among them was a record breaking time turned in by Mike Reveruzzi in the two mile run. It was a fine climax to a great season.

BASKETBALL

The Enfield High Basketball Team in its 1964-1965 season came up with an unimpressive record of nine wins and eight losses. Coach Carl Angelica had his hands full rebuilding the Raiders after losing all five starters from last year's team. The Green Raiders were headed by 6'5" senior Ken Gwozdz who averaged 16.8 points a game. Other seniors on the squad were Ron Miller, Paul Javorski, Ron Kalva, Doug Wein, Dave Jamieson, and Chuck Gatto.

Enfield had its ups and downs during the season starting with a lose to Minnechaug but then hitting a high point during a five game winning streak downing East Longmeadow, Agawam, Palmer, and Ware. However, this victory was matched by three consecutive losses to Easthampton, Ludlow, and Minnechaug. Enfield then bounced back against Agawam but was downed in the same week by Palmer. The Green Raiders then played hot and cold ball beating Ware and losing to Longmeadow. The sweetest victory of the year came when arch-rival Easthampton fell to an inspired Raider team.

Enfield, in this year's campaign, again showed a deliberate offense and a good defense. The team was led in scoring by Ken Gwozdz and Ken Van Nostrand. While the two Ken's controlled the backboards, Paul Javorski, Ron Miller, and Charlie Ragno were relied on for speed.

BASEBALL TEAM

Last year's Valley Wheel race went right down to the wire with Enfield, Agawam, and South Hadley as the three leading contenders. Having lost the last game of the season to South Hadley with a score of 2 to 1, we just missed tying for the title.

Since our hitting was weak, the team relied heavily on pitching and defense for its wins. But the top pitchers graduated in 1964, leaving this year's pitching staff a big question mark. How the team does this year in pitching depends largely on whether Coach Carl Angelica can mold a good staff from returning seniors Ken Gwozdz and Mike Misiewicz, and from the players coming up from the Junior Varsity team.

The rest of the team seems to be pretty well set with Joe Morris, Joe Garbrous, and John Pohorylo sparking the team on the field. Enfield should make a good account of itself this spring in the very tough Valley Wheel race.

CHEERLEADING

During the past year our school has witnessed a demonstration of the most vivacious, energetic squad of cheerleaders Enfield has ever had. Pom-poms waving, students yelling, and hand motions matching the band music all added to the excitement of cheering our team on to victory.

The cheerleaders of '64-'65 have worked diligently together to help build the school spirit which Enfield High will never lose. They have spent much time constructing something of which we can all be proud.

We hope that in the years to come this spirit will be upheld as well as it has been by this group during the school year of '64-'65.

DRILL TEAM

The "Raiderettes", Enfield's Drill Team, was formed in 1961. In its four years' existence, the girls have marched at numerous football and basketball games doing different routines to the music of the school band.

The team's advisor is Mrs. McCarroll. This year's officers were Betty Luwé Solesky as Captain, Gale Bronson as Co-Captain, Jeanne Mullen as Secretary, and Valerie Peterson as Treasurer.

MAJORETTES

Adding color and skill to all home game half-times, the Majorettes are a source of pride for Enfield High School. During football season, the girls, in dark green corduroy outfits and shiny, white boots, were a bright spot in the usually rainy afternoon. During basketball season, they changed to white blouses, green corduroy skirts and white sneakers. Their routines were fascinating in themselves, and an added attraction was little, blond Annie, their mascot, who always earned extra applause.

Jane Kozlowski was captain, Myrna Maldonado, co-captain, and Dianne Grenier secretary.

HOCKEY TEAM

The Enfield High Hockey Team is coached by Mr. David Keaney, a former hockey star at American International College. This year the team played four independent games and ended the season with a 2-2 record.

Most of the games were played at the Loomis School in Windsor. Enfield won the first game 5-0, with seniors Phil Clarkin and Rick Garner providing the offensive punch. In the rematch the Raiders took a 6-3 beating.

With a 1-1 record the Raiders met Commerce High, a member of the Western Mass. Hockey League, at the Eastern States Coliseum. The Raiders were handed their second consecutive loss by a 6-1 count. Early in the game, Phil Clarkin scored the Raider's only goal.

The final game of the season was again played at the Loomis School. It turned out to be the Raider's most skillfully played game. In a 2-0 slump with less than two minutes left to play, Phil Clarkin scored three goals. This gave the Raiders a 3-2 victory.

Senior members of the team were Rick Garner, Phil Clarkin, Andy Prayzner, Mike Cosgrove, George Howland, and John Clarkin.
